

NEWS ALERT

Cortec® Weekly Email Has A New Look!

From new products that combat corrosion and help conserve the environment, to providing our clients with up-to-date information about Cortec® products, we are constantly striving to better ourselves. With that comes change.

Cortec's weekly email has been given a new face. Cortec® News delivers pertinent information on a weekly basis including Press Releases, News Alerts, Product Spotlights, Case Histories, and many other news stories to your inbox.

If you're interested in receiving this weekly email, please contact Shannon Garrow: sgarrow@cortecvci.com and we'll get you on your way to the best corrosion control news around.
